Jealousy

Jealousy

It's natural that you feel jealous
when you're in love with someone.

But somehow, I feel thot there is o lack of this emotion between us.

Once I was deeply into Cristiano Ronoldo.

Mev used to show his jealousy
but it was more like a joke than real.

When I think about the opposite situation

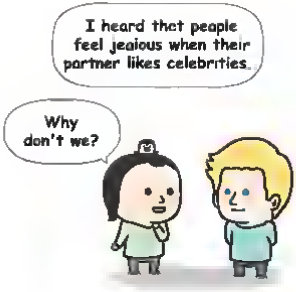
I don't feel jealousy either.



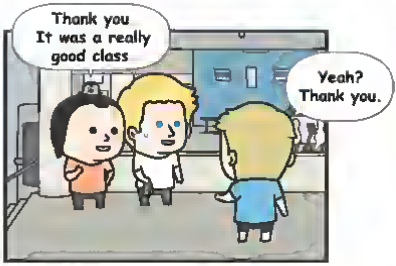
I guess it shows that there are many different people in the world.

Anyway, recently,
I realised how non-jealous we are.

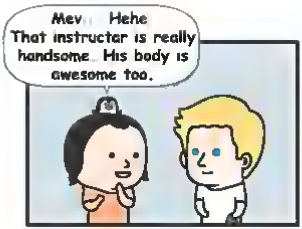
Not long ago, we joined a gym.

The gym has many classes that we can join.

It was after we finished one class.



We said this to the instructor
who ran the class that day.



Mev... Hehe
That instructor is really handsome. His body is awesome too.

I whispered.

I couldn't find even a spelling of 'j' from Mev.

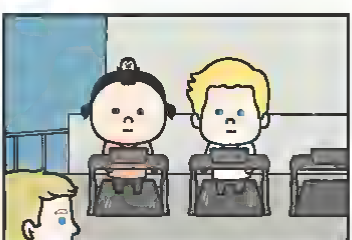
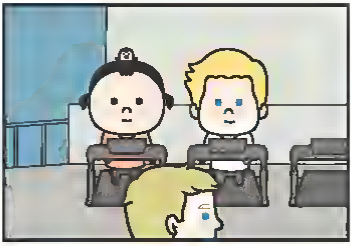
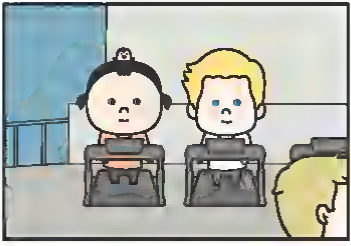
Mev.
Mev!







(Mind reading)
